Current Position	Associate Professor, Marquette University Law School (27 years)	Dane County Circuit Court Judge (elected in 2017)	WI Supreme Court Justice (appointed by Governor Scott Walker in 2016)
Judicial Philosophy; Why Running	"I was very concerned (with) the retirement of Shirley Abrahamson, that her departure would leave a void on the court and be lacking her vision and her courage to speak the truth'....Fallone said he wants to run against Kelly because he believes his appointment to the court by former Gov. Scott Walker was a 'political reward for his loyalty.'" ¹	"I'm a judge, I've been a local and state prosecutor, I directed the state's Office of Crime Victim Services. No one knows better than me how important it is to have a legal system that works.... I believe in our history of great public schools, protecting our beautiful natural resources, and protecting civil rights for all." ²	"There is no end to the mischief the judiciary causes when it abandons its role of declaring what the law is, and instead arrogates to itself the power to develop new law in place of what it received from the ultimate lawgivers – the people of the State of Wisconsin and the United States...It is my desire to serve the people of this State by applying, protecting, and preserving the rule of law in the Wisconsin Supreme Court" ³
Legal Experience	Law school associate professor	Assistant Attorney General; Dane County Judge	Private practice; Justice, Wisconsin Supreme Court
