Judicial Experience

Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice, 4 years

Judicial Philosophy/Why Running

“Defend Constitutional Rights. Uphold the Rule of Law. Prevent Judicial Activism.”

“The rule of law – the idea that law should be applied as written, without regard to the jurist's personal preferences – lies at the foundation of civil society. It is this principle that gives us the chance to live together in safe communities where we can exercise our liberties and pursue futures of our own design.”¹

Candidate cites worst court decision in last 30 years

Kelo (U.S. Supreme Court, 2005)

Court held government can take private property to turn it over to a developer if it will result in “economic development.”

Kelly: “still stands up well as one of the worst opinions.”²

Judicial Experience

Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge, 8 years

Judicial Philosophy/Why Running

“In regard to the progressive label, I embrace that when it comes to issues such as gerrymandering, when we talk about the maps, when we talk about marriage equality, when we talk about women's rights and women's rights to choose.”³

Candidate cites worst court decision in last 30 years

Dobbs (U.S. Supreme Court, 2022)

Court overturned Roe v. Wade.

Protasiewicz: “epitome of judicial activism”⁴
