Looking Ahead to the Fall Partisan Primary

Has a date on the calendar ever snuck up on you? I (Dave Skahen) feel like my kids' birthdays sneak up on me every year. I can think of a few times when a birthday was just few days away, and I had a panic moment because I didn't remember to buy gifts. Thankfully, my wife stays on top of these things and the family calendar much better than I do. She reassures me in those moments that she has already purchased what is needed.

Likewise, we don't want a certain date to sneak up on you. While it's fairly unlikely to have the November 5th election sneak past many people, there's another election we want you to know about. Tuesday, August 13, is the fall partisan primary election. There will be quite a few important primaries and races for US senate, US congress, state representatives and senators and more, as well as 2 statewide referenda questions. We have an explanation of the referenda questions available HERE.

On August 13, we encourage you to go out to the polls, choose well, and honor God with your vote. If you would like some extra information for your specific district regarding this election, My Vote Wisconsin is very helpful. It'll show information about your polling place, what's on your ballot, registering to vote, and who the candidates will be. We know that the Lord is sovereign, but we encourage you to participate and vote for biblical values.

On Tuesday, August 13, chose well.

In Christ,

P.S. A great way to navigate this political season would be to pick up a copy of Erwin Lutzer's book, "Christians, Politics, and the Cross." If you would like a copy, please let us know. We would be happy to give you one.

P.P.S. Wisconsin Family Council Sunday is September 22, 2024. At that time, we invite you to promote and share the ministry of Wisconsin Family Council to your church. Please let us know if you would like any promotional materials or to request a speaker to personally share WFC with your congregation.
